Property Description

In the Grands Causses park, 20 minutes from Saint-Affrique, this exceptional 19th century estate, once a sheepfold, has been tastefully renovated to offer a property complex of nearly 500sqm. The interior of the main house combines a clever blend of old-world charm and modernity with friendly living spaces, such as the living room which gives an unusual atmosphere. The mix of materials such as iron and wood with the natural stone floor and walls adds an industrial touch. On the ground floor, there is also the kitchen with access to the terrace, the laundry room and a toilet. The first floor, also accessible from the outside, consists of a master suite with shower room and toilet, and three other bedrooms sharing a shower room and toilet. A relaxation area with sauna completes this level. On the second floor, there is a room of over 70sqm, partly in the attic. This is currently used as a yoga room and has underfloor heating. A 43sqm loft-style apartment is also on this level. The roof terrace with a view of the valley and its "catamaran net" type relaxation area creates a little corner of paradise. The first 73sqm cottage, on two levels, is made up of 3 bedrooms and a bathroom. Tastefully renovated, while retaining the character of the old with the stone walls. It has its own private outdoor space out of sight. The second 45sqm cottage, more intimate, is made up of a bedroom with an adjoining bathroom. It also has a private outdoor space. The building also has an outbuilding currently used as a storage space. The exterior is a true natural setting: the swimming pool in the extension of the sunny terrace offers an exceptional view of the green valleys. This haven of peace extends over a vast plot of land of more than 25,000sqm with a forest. The stream bordering the property adds a touch of serenity, offering a natural setting conducive to relaxation and meditation. This estate is a rare opportunity for those who dream of creating a space dedicated to well-being and reconnecting with nature, while enjoying an exceptional living environment. A real favorite for lovers of nature, calm, and authenticity. A peaceful life far from the hustle and bustle of big cities. Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
