Property Description

This beautifully renovated village south-exposed house offers a warm and inviting atmosphere, making it perfect for gatherings. It features four spacious bedrooms and five bath/shower rooms, along with a double salon and a cosy office equipped with a fireplace, providing ample space for family and friends.

The charming kitchen opens up to a lovely terrace, where there is plenty of room to dine with a group while enjoying breathtaking views over the rolling countryside and the Pyrenees, which makes the modest garden feel expansive. Unusually for a village home, this property includes two garages—an exceptional feature that adds versatility.

This house is ideal for those seeking a permanent residence or a tranquil holiday retreat. With its setting and flexible layout, it also presents an excellent opportunity for anyone interested in starting a B&B, offering both charm and unparalleled views from the salon, main bedroom, terrace, and pool.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
