Property Description

This delightful farmhouse, crafted from the iconic white stone of the Gers, exudes character and timeless appeal. Tucked away from the road, this peaceful haven is within easy reach of a nearby village with all essential amenities. Brimming with original details, its cosy low ceilings in certain areas create an inviting atmosphere, perfect for unwinding after a long day.

Outside, a secluded swimming pool offers breathtaking views of the gently rolling landscape. Sheltered by mature trees, the well-organised plot provides ample space for a vegetable garden and alfresco dining under the open sky. The partially renovated property features a well, offering potential for those eager to continue the work and make it their own.

Whether you're seeking a tranquil retreat or a project to pour your heart into, this enchanting farmhouse will surely captivate you with its charm and potential.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
