Property Description

In the heart of a preserved natural setting, between the Tarn, Lot, and Aveyron departments, this charming property offers a rare opportunity to combine family life and a tourist project. The main house offers approximately 340sqm of living space and has been carefully renovated. It stands out for its generous volumes, brightness, and warm atmosphere. In addition, a separate 85sqm gîte, rated 4 stars, offers strong rental potential. Located on more than 2 hectares of land, the property features a swimming pool area with a pool house and an orchard with a variety of tree species, all in a peaceful and green environment. From the entrance, the house's spaciousness is impressive. Its authentic character and high-quality features are appealing. The ground floor offers a vast living space bathed in light, consisting of a living room opening onto an elegant kitchen and a dining room. On the other wing of the house, a second independent entrance provides access to another living room with a warm atmosphere. A games room and a laundry room complete this level. The upper floor is dedicated to relaxation. It is composed of six spacious bedrooms, including two master suites with private bathrooms. A third independent bathroom offers additional comfort for the whole family. Accessible from two separate staircases, some of the bedrooms can be made independent to optimize tourist activity. The 85 sqm independent gîte, with its superb cathedral ceiling, is ideally suited to a seasonal rental business. It features a beautiful living room with a fitted kitchen, three bedrooms, including one on a mezzanine, and three bathrooms. Currently rented between 8 and 10 weeks per year, it generates rental income of approximately EUR22,000/year, offering an attractive return on investment. Located on a plot of over 2 hectares, this property benefits from a green and peaceful environment. Its swimming pool area with pool house, a true haven of relaxation, promises moments of conviviality surrounded by nature. The exteriors are not to be outdone. The generous orchard, composed of multiple fruit trees, brings a bucolic touch to the whole. A large terrace surrounds a beautiful swimming pool and its pool house. The layout of the outdoor spaces, between landscaped gardens and pool area, guarantees an exceptional living environment. Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
