Property Description

Large family house with swimming pool on 1ha of land

This house was renovated with great care into a huge family home. Due to the layout, it may also be possible for double occupancy.

The original house is built in the typical style of here: door in the middle and on either side of the hallway a space. This house has been extended with an extension at the rear (kitchen) and the former hangar is now a large residence, which can be separated from the main house.

It has also been used as a holiday home over the years.

The house has a beautiful piece of land with a spacious swimming pool and at the bottom, on the north a lake. Ample parking, a poolside shelter and a summer kitchen.

It has a visible neighbor, but at a good distance and a second, invisible neighbor to the east.

Rural location near a large lake.

The house has many bedrooms with the holiday home character, which can be restored to their original state. So, if you are with a large family and would also like to receive friends, who then have their own home, then this is the opportunity to strike.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
