Property Description

Located 10 minutes south of Tarbes, this family house (137 m²) is composed of a kitchen, a living area, 3 bedrooms, a bathroom, an attic suitable for conversion, a garage and an outbuilding, on a fenced-in and tree-filled garden of 2600 m².

Quietly situated in a town with all conveniences, this house will be ideal for a family after renovation. Ready for occupation.

The huge entrance hall gives onto the living area and the kitchen. A separate toilet is to the right. On the left there is a lovely living area consisting of a sitting room and a dining room. The nice openings let in a lot of light and it is not overlooked. The house, built in the 50's, still has the charm of its old wooden flooring.

From the hall, a lovely wooden staircase leads the bedrooms. On the left is a toilet and bathroom. Opposite, there are 2 big bedrooms. To the right is the third bedroom with views of the garden. The entire flooring is in good condition.

The attic is suitable for conversion and would allow the creation of additional rooms.

The basement covers the entire surface of the house and can be reached from either the kitchen or the outside of the house. There is a big space for storage and a space with the boiler and hot-water heater.

Outside, there is a garage and a big outbuilding that could be converted into a workshop.

The garden isn't overlooked, is fenced-in and has an orchard. Very peaceful, nicely laid out and planted with beautiful trees.

Construction is traditional. The roof is tiled. Joinery is single-glazed. Heating provided by an oil-fired boiler. Electric hot-water heater. Connected to mains drainage.

Located 10 minutes from Tarbes and all conveniences; 15 min from a national railway station (SNCF) and the motorway; 20 min from the airport Tarbes-Lourdes-Pyrenees; 1 hr from Spain and ski slopes; 1 hr 45 min from the Atlantic Ocean; 3 hr from the Mediterranean Sea.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
