Property Description

Character village house close to the centre of Estagel and all the amenities the village has to offer, yet set in a quiet and private environment.

This spacious house offers 270m² of total space set over 3 floors, benefitting from approximately 185m² of habitable space consisting of 4 bedrooms, an office, 3 bathrooms, a kitchen/dining room and a bright living room, plus a further 95m² consisting of a large garage, 2 cellars and boiler room.

This atypical residence allows you to fully enjoy the mild Mediterranean climate thanks to its various balconies, its rooftop terrace, and its magnificent private interior courtyard. A large wooded garden of 879m², rare for this type of property.

This is an ideal lock-up-and-leave holiday home, set in a great location. Estagel has many restaurants, cafes, bakery, supermarket, post office - everything you need on a daily basis, plus easy access to the hiking and cycling trails to enjoy the surrounding nature.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
