This beautiful house opens on the ground floor onto a hall with ornate cement tiles and high ceilings. Until very recently, the ground floor was used as a doctor's surgery.

On the 1st floor: a beautiful and bright living room of over 53m², tastefully decorated and a kitchen of over 10m².

On the 2nd floor: three good-sized bedrooms, a bathroom, a shower room, a dressing room and separate toilets.

The house has a garden at the rear with terraces and jacuzzi as well as a room of more than 17m² which can be used as a workshop. The house can also be accessed through a gate at the end of the garden.

Close to all amenities (school, college, pharmacy, supermarket, etc.), the building is ideal for a family or for combining a main residence with a professional activity.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
