Property Description

This typical south exposed Fishermen's village house in the seaside fishing town of Collioure is ideally situated 100 meters walking distance of the beach. The house needs to be renovated -a contractor has visited the place for a precise assessment, budget dependant on options and space distribution- and could be converted into 2 or 3 studios or a complete house for private use or/and rentals.

The rare house offers 90 sqm of living space, it comes with an attic space (30 sq.m) and a spacious cellar. On the ground floor there's open kitchen with a fireplace, living room and a shower and wc on the corner.

Upstairs, on the first floor, landing, a bedroom with sink and fireplace. On the second floor a bedroom with a small kitchenette and fireplace. Finally there's an attic accessible by stairs, around 30 sq.m.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
