Property Description

This property is a stone house with unique woodwork situated in a magical and idyllic setting within the grounds of a historic estate in Aude, in the Occitanie region. It is conveniently located just 5 minutes away from a village with all amenities and services. The city of Carcassonne and its airport are 15 minutes away, while Bram, the entrance to the motorway, is just 6 minutes away.

This residence offers a generous living area of 249 sqm and will charm you with its beautiful finishes, character, location away from other homes, and its existing potential, as the interior is modular. Upon entering the property, you'll find a bright entrance leading to the living area, dining room, fully equipped open kitchen, and access to an incredible library on two levels. The library is a curiosity, as it is overlooked by a mobile bridge upstairs. It could easily become an additional bedroom with a bathroom. In continuity, two cellars follow one another. In the other wing, completely independent, is a studio/gite with a small kitchen, living room/bedroom, bathroom, WC, and cupboard.

Upstairs, you can access the second part of the library, which could be easily turned into another bedroom. Additionally, a second living area could be converted into a bedroom as there's already a toilet and a separate bathroom. On this same level, a lovely bedroom with a dressing room, bathroom, and a private terrace with views of the garden and the park is also available.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
