Property Description

In a charming village on the edge of Vexin, this atypical old house will be perfect for family life, but also for the possibility of having a professional or liberal activity at home while maintaining the intimacy of private life. Built on a plot of approximately 1500 m², this residence offers a range of old materials such as parquet floors, tiles, beams, and stones. The main access to the ground floor is via a pleasant courtyard which reveals the diversity of the architecture of the whole. You enter the main building through a glazed airlock which gives a glimpse of access to the rear garden. On one side, we discover a very large kitchen with a raised open fireplace area and dining area. Then a living room with exposed beams opens onto an octagonal veranda which offers the sensation of being immersed in nature. There follows an alcove used as a small living room with a stone fireplace, a vaulted room which could be used as a music room or office, then a toilet and a laundry room. Upstairs, a large landing serves 2 bedrooms and a bathroom, then on the half level, you access a cathedral bedroom with a large library occupying the entire height, a mezzanine, a dressing room and a bathroom . Finally, a charming attic has been converted into a double bedroom. An exterior staircase leads to a first independent space composed of a series of two cathedral rooms, which were formerly professional offices. An independent studio including a kitchenette, a living room, a bathroom and a toilet, completes this set with multiple possibilities. Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
