Property Description

In the heart of the Village of Auteuil, like a little house perched on the roofs of Paris, this urban cocoon of 45.05 m² (37.16 m² Carrez) and its panoramic terrace of 22 m² offer an incomparable living environment. Nestled on the top floor of an old building and accessible by elevator, this apartment seduces with its numerous openings to the outside allowing it to be bathed in light all day long.

Past the front door on the seventh floor, a private staircase leads to the upper floor where the entire apartment is revealed.

The living room, a true centerpiece, opens onto a planted terrace offering a breathtaking and unobstructed view of all of Paris.

The equipped independent kitchen is not to be outdone and also offers a nice perspective on the outside. A beautiful storage space with full-height walk-in closets creates a link between the day area and the night area.

The bedroom, highlighted by a wooden headboard, is accompanied by a bathroom where the covering has been designed as a graphic game.

The careful layout and ample storage space optimize space for a functional and comfortable lifestyle. A cellar completes this property.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
