Property Description

A cultural and sporting city close to the capital, Vincennes is one of the most sought-after places in the Paris region.

Renowned educational establishments, quality food shops, starred restaurants and exceptional artisans make the reputation of this city in eastern Paris.

It is in the very center, in the most popular street, that this workshop to be completely redesigned benefits from a 40 sqm garden.

A prior declaration of work for a total renovation of the property has been obtained. This provides for a surface area of 125 sqm.

Located on the third line, in absolute calm, this freehold property with an industrial look benefits from a ridge height of approximately 5 meters as well as an outdoor space.

The amenities are endless for this exceptional place in the heart of the city.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
