Property Description

It is in the heart of an island hidden from view, at the confluence of the Seine and the Oise, that this wooden house borrows as much from the villa on the banks of Cap-Ferret as from the North American chalet, offers a bubble of oxygen, absolute calm.

The house, now renovated, covers 190 sqm on a plot of 2554 sqm.

From the entrance, the living room of more than 70 sqm accommodates the living room heated by its fireplace, the kitchen open to the dining area and a space converted into a bedroom or living room/TV. Inside, immersion in this bucolic environment gives it a particularly zen character with a quickly perceptible feeling of well-being.

From there, an airlock articulates the second space of the house, which leads to a veranda organized from a large wooden through glass roof conducive to daydreaming, two bedrooms and their bathrooms, one of which has a shower-hammam and a room intended to accommodate children's games or the studious activity of an office complete the set.

A staircase leads to a master suite where the warm spirit of wood also dominates.

A wooden terrace extends the rooms on the ground floor with a promontory overlooking the wooded garden.

40 minutes from Paris, an undeniably charming place, this house accessible only by private boat offers an original life project for nature lovers, primary or secondary residence, guest room or gites can be provided, to those who wish. , an additional activity.

Sold with three boats.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
