Property Description

Like a 'house on the roof', this 197 m2 Carrez duplex is located at the top of a small building from the 1950s designed by the architect Henri Pottier (whose residence it was), in the heart of the Princes and architectural tour from the 1930s in Boulogne-Billancourt. It has a magnificent terrace with a view of the surrounding greenery and the iconic Parc des Princes.

Past a large entrance with storage space, a splendid living space of more than 60 m² is revealed, flooded with light, opening onto the 72 m² terrace, a true haven of peace. The cut stone wall enhances the charm of the room, while the cathedral living room offers exceptional volume and large bay windows over its entire height provide continuity between the interior and exterior.

A beautiful, completely independent parental space of 40 m² includes a bedroom with custom-made storage, an office, as well as a large dressing room and a bathroom preserved in the memory of the place.

The staircase, in perfect harmony with the main room, leads to the upper floor where a pleasant reading room on the mezzanine invites you to relax. Four other bedrooms, all equipped with custom storage and their own bathroom, complete the sleeping area.

A box and a large cellar add to the services of this exceptional property.

This family cocoon surrounded by greenery and hidden from view, offers a timeless living environment for architecture lovers, in a privileged environment just a few minutes' walk from Roland Garros and the Serres d'Auteuil. The original materials have been preserved in order to preserve the soul of this place, and match the design which is reminiscent of contemporary art.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
