Property Description

This duplex of 237.19 sqm (188.26 sqm loi Carrez) is located on the sixth and last floor by elevator of a Haussmann building.

Benefiting from lovely views and featuring five balconies, it perfectly combines the charm of Haussmann with the spirit of an artist's studio.

A generous entrance hall serves the living spaces.

A cathedral lounge takes place in the former workshop topped with a large glass roof.

On the street side, facing south, a living - dining room with adjoining kitchen and balconies offers a bright and friendly space.

This first level also includes a first bedroom and a suite with a breathtaking view of La Défense and the Palais des Congrès.

Upstairs, you will find two to three bedrooms, including one overlooking the cathedral living room.

The bedrooms are accompanied by two shower rooms and two bathrooms.

This exceptional place, with extraordinary characteristics, guarantees very fluid circulation while maintaining the privacy of the multiple sleeping areas.

The location at the foot of Porte Maillot allows ideal road and public transport access.

This exceptional family duplex is a true rare pearl combining elegance, space and brightness.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
