Property Description

Located near the Ourcq canal and Place Olympe de Gouge, in a building from the beginning of the 20th Century, a garden level apartment of 39.73m² (36.11m² Carrez).

Once past the corridor of the building and the shared courtyard with trees, an independent entrance opens onto a living room with a kitchen lit by roof windows, totaling 22m² and benefiting from a height of 3.40m.

On one side of the living room, a bedroom with a 3.50m mezzanine bed and on the other a bathroom with water closet completes the level.

The ideal location, immediate access to the garden, the high ceilings and the renovation work carried out by the owners brings all the character of this apartment.

A lean-to and a cellar complete the property.

Although subject to the status of co-ownership.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
