Property Description

Former shop and its courtyard annex in Jules Joffrin Near Jules-Joffrin, in a village-style shopping district, this former shop has been transformed into a loft-style apartment with industrial tones.

Crossing the street and courtyard, it is accompanied by an annex totaling a surface area of 91.29 m2 Carrez. Past the hall of the building, through the green courtyard, the entrance leads on one side to the open fitted kitchen, on the other, a bedroom overlooking the courtyard with window and glass roof with storage and accompanied by a bathroom with toilets.

Continuing on, the bright main living room of more than 30 m<sup>2</sup> facing south-east is lit by a full-height and full-width workshop-style glass roof.

Via the masterful and graphic red metallic staircase, you access two vaulted rooms including a large bedroom and a second room that can be used as a second bedroom or video room.

A bathroom with toilet and adjoining laundry room completes this level.

The 16 sqm annex, located just opposite the entrance to the apartment, on the courtyard side, completes the latter and can thus be used for different uses: office, studio, bedroom with bathroom, workshop, etc.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
