Property Description

Moored opposite Saint Denis Island in Villeneuve la Garenne in a green setting, this Freycinet-type sailing barge built in 1908 with approximately 150m² of living space, feels like a house on the water and combines singularity and comfort within a privileged environment.

Generous in size, 39.4m long and 5.06m wide, the house benefits from an open-air terrace not overlooked, conducive to relaxation and escape, which opens through its large bay window onto a living space approximately 60m². Featuring beautiful parquet flooring and organized around a large open fireplace, this room combines a kitchen with an exotic wood bar and a living room.

As an extension, the sleeping area offers 3 bedrooms, a dressing room and a bathroom with bathtub and WC.

Back on deck, the wheelhouse provides access to the sailor's accommodation, in its original woodwork, to be renovated.

A small ROCCA 1963 boat, a hydraulic crane and a generator, for autonomy in navigation, complete this property.

Ideal for lovers of water and originality, this barge offers you an exceptional living experience.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
