Property Description

In a completely renovated and rehabilitated area, this mixed-use extension project, located in a quiet courtyard and not directly overlooked, offers a peaceful and intimate setting.

The building permit, already filed and purged of any appeal, provides for a total surface area of 102 sqm, completed by a 4 sqm terrace, spread over three levels.

The project is divided into two distinct parts.

The first unit includes an existing workshop of 35.21 sqm Carrez on the courtyard level, previously rented to an accounting firm.

The two upper levels, accessible by a staircase, open onto a beautiful reception room bathed in light thanks to five windows including a French window opening onto the south-west facing terrace.

Upstairs, two bedrooms benefit from a bathroom.

One of them is extended by a non-accessible planted terrace.

This property offers many possibilities for customization, allowing you to define the layout of the spaces and the choice of materials according to your preferences.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
