Property Description

Located rue Meslay, this duplex of 116 m² (62 m² Carrez) not overlooked is located on the 5th and last floor with an elevator to the 4th floor of an 18th century building.

The entrance opens onto a bright dining kitchen of 21 m² overlooking the roofs of Paris, alongside a living room of 20 m² under 4.60 m at the ridge, and a bedroom with a laundry area, a shower room and a toilet .

A concrete staircase leads to the attic floor, leading to a 17 m² bedroom and an office that can be used as a 3rd extra bedroom, offering unobstructed views of Beaubourg, the dome of the Pantheon or the Montparnasse Tower. A shower room and a separate toilet complete this level.

The combination of wood, metal and concrete gives this duplex a resolutely contemporary touch, creating a warm living space conducive to entertaining.

This property subject to co-ownership status benefits from secure bicycle storage.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
