Property Description

Located in a quiet private lane, not far from Rue des Martyrs, comfortably installed on the ground floor, this loft-style apartment totals 91.57 m² (65.57 m² Carrez) spread over two levels.

The entrance leads to a large living room of 42 m² with a wood stove.

This pleasant living room has two windows overlooking the private lane and a window onto a gallery.

The equipped kitchen, adjoining the living room, overlooks the private lane. On the night side, a bedroom has an adjoining bathroom. The toilet is separate.

A 26 m² ventilated and heated basement, accessible from the living room by a staircase, opens up multiple possibilities for developments, whether it be an office, or a creative workshop, intended for music, sound and image lovers. This volume allows the place to be adapted to various life projects.

This property will seduce with its calm and charm, a parenthesis of tranquility and character.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
