Property Description

Espaces Atypiques offers you a Tjalk-type masted barge moored along the Quai de Conti in the 6th arrondissement of Paris where its home port has been elected for over forty years.

With a surface area of 115 m² (23.00 mx 5.00) and a deck area of 24.00 m² (4.00 mx 6.00 m) this non-navigating and non-couple river dwelling can be lived like a house on the water and combines singularity and comfort within a privileged environment.

The view of the Seine is conducive to escape by offering a privileged perspective on the Parisian monuments.

The house benefits from an open-air terrace and a comfortable living space. This traditional ship, where exotic wood reigns supreme and spreads harmoniously in each room, bears witness to the history of river navigation and has retained all its original charm.

After a flight of stairs, from the entrance a beautiful living space develops which brings together a kitchen with a counter dressed in brass and wood as well as a lounge area organized around a warm wood stove.

As in a loft, the space is extended by a line of storage. On one side, two bedrooms and their bathroom which are adorned with cleverly fitted dressing rooms for an optimal layout. Offices are also cleverly hidden.

On the other side, a third bedroom also has its own bathroom.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
