Property Description

Located at Place Lino Ventura, at the intersection of Rue des Martyrs, this 49.04 sqm apartment (36.71 sqm Carrez) has benefited from a renovation and a bohemian-style layout.

Nestled on the sixth and top floor of an old building with an elevator, it stands out for its exceptional brightness thanks to its many openings and its beautiful ceiling height varying between 2.60 m and 3.20 m.

Past the front door, the living room punctuated by an exposed framework welcomes an open and fitted kitchen with a friendly and warm atmosphere.

The bathroom combines the waxed concrete with the original floor tiles of the apartment, adding a touch of authenticity to the place.

The bedroom, a true haven of peace, has a functional fireplace and an office area ideal for teleworking or a reading space. This rare detail gives an additional charm to this room entirely overlooking the courtyard.

This apartment combines the charm of the old with contemporary amenities offering a cozy and bright living space in the heart of the 9th district of Paris. A unique opportunity to enjoy the calm and authenticity in one of the most sought-after neighborhoods of the capital.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
