Property Description

It is in a cheerfully wooded courtyard, where a Parisian countryside atmosphere reigns, that this true artists' studio is revealed.

Both so close and so far from the hustle and bustle of Paris, the property, completely revisited in 2016, develops like a house on two levels and offers a surface area of 64.59 m² Carrez (66.29 m² on the ground). A unique place to live which has seen the work of Amadeo Modigliani and Diego Riviera, to name but a few. On the garden level, an open but intimate kitchen welcomes us, facing a majestic fireplace with a contemporary design.

As a backdrop, the living room and the exposed beams are dressed in white. With its skylight and bay windows overlooking the green exterior, the living room benefits from soft, diffused light.

A few steps up, on a mezzanine which overlooks this space, there is a reading corner and the sleeping area consisting of a bedroom with its bathroom supplemented by plenty of storage space and a laundry room.

A unique place to live that combines the sweetness of life and creativity.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
