Property Description

Located in a shopping and dynamic district, close to the Bibliothèque metro station (line 14), this former commercial premises of 103.40 m² Carrez, like a house sheltered from view and noise, is carefully arranged on two levels.

This loft which combines calm and volume in an atypical space, benefits from a converted basement and a terrace not overlooked of 33 m².

The entrance opens onto a cozy living room which reveals on the right, a modern and friendly kitchen, while on the left, a patio, characterized by a beautiful high ceiling, is lit by a large skylight. In the extension, there is a bedroom and its bathroom.

From this patio, a few steps lead to the master bedroom which benefits from access to the terrace (exclusive use).

A basement converted into an office adds a touch of functionality, perfect for teleworking or studies, while maximizing the living space.

The calm, the generous volumes and the outdoor space make this loft a very rare property.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
