Property Description

Located in the heart of the Gaité-Montparnasse district, on the top floor with elevator of the Mouchotte building designed by architect Jean Dubuisson, this 60 sqm Carrez apartment is characterized by its contemporary spirit, its brightness and its unobstructed view.

The load-bearing walls are offset inside the construction, the exterior envelope is treated as a graphic surface, alternating strips of glass and metal, in order to let the light pass through.

An entrance with storage distributes a modern bathroom then a bright living room, facing due south and benefiting from an unobstructed view of the Place de Catalogne.

A separate and fully equipped kitchen adjoins a dining area and a living room with clean lines, magnified by its arches and custom-made fittings.

This space filled with conviviality continues into the bedroom, facing due east, which is also characterized by a resolutely contemporary universe.

The highly sought-after location, the top floor situation, the calm, the view and the brightness make this apartment a real favorite.

A cellar completes this property subject to the status of the co-ownership. Cold water, hot water and heating are included in the co-ownership charges.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
