Property Description

It is in Fontenay-sous-Bois, behind a discreet gate that you will find this 192m² loft with its extraordinary volumes. This property, which can be reinterpreted according to your wishes, rises on two levels, giving this place an impression of freedom.

The entrance leads to a vast open space offering an ideal setting for fans of open and flexible spaces. This reception area consists of a kitchen area as well as a dining room area benefiting from a height under the ridge benefiting from zenithal light thanks to an imposing roof glass roof.

Finally, two blind rooms that can be transformed into bedrooms, an office or a dressing room, as well as a bathroom complete this level.

A wide wooden and metal staircase leads to a footbridge connecting the master bedroom on one side with its workshop area, opening onto an intimate terrace ideal for relaxation.

On the opposite side, two additional bedrooms and a bathroom overlooking the living room complete this level dedicated to the sleeping area.

This loft with its omnipresent metal structure, a real blank page to personalize, offers remarkable volumes and rare potential, perfect for those in search of architectural creativity and atypical spaces.

A garage completes this property.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
