Property Description

Near Avenue Trudaine and Square d'Anvers, this former printing works of 210.06 sqm Carrez, transformed into an elegant loft apartment, is built around a tree-filled outdoor space of 65 m2 for exclusive use.

Renovated by an architect, this authentic place harmoniously combines modernity and industrial charm, offering neat services and generous volumes.

The entrance leads to a generous double living room decorated with large bay windows opening onto the vast green patio.

A dining room with an open, equipped and functional kitchen also communicates with the exterior, creating a perfect harmony between interior and exterior.

On the night side, a master suite with private bathroom, separate toilet and dressing room benefits from a pleasant green panorama.

It is followed by an office / music studio that can also be used as a bedroom.

This gives access to a 23 m² reserve in the basement.

Finally, an additional bedroom on the second day benefits from its shower room and toilet.

A rarity on the market, this exceptional property is an opportunity to seize for lovers of calm and discreet luxury while remaining in the heart of Parisian life.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
