Property Description

In a quiet residential street in Livry Gargan, this house of 240m² of living space from the 1970s on 2 levels benefits from a wooded plot of approximately 470m² with terrace.

The ground floor forms a living room with fireplace and open kitchen.

A small corridor leads to a bedroom with office area and independent toilets. The south-facing terrace is accessible from the kitchen and the office. The many openings leave plenty of room for light and vegetation. On the first floor, on the landing converted into an office and dressing room leads to a master suite with bathroom and shower, two bedrooms with dressing room, a second bathroom with shower and a separate toilet.

A staircase located on the first floor leads to the roof terrace of the house offering an unobstructed view of the surroundings.

On the ground floor, a garage with double parking spaces and two laundry rooms complete the set.

This ideally located family home, close to shops and schools, offers a peaceful living environment conducive to entertaining.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
