Property Description

In a former Boilerworks, on the outskirts of the Parc des Coteaux d'Avron, this 200m2 inverted triplex (Carrez Law) has been redesigned and renovated in an industrial style.

The entrance opens onto a corridor leading to a first bedroom of approximately 16m2 accompanied by its dressing room, a bathroom, a toilet, as well as a living room of approximately 36m2 which can be transformed into an additional bedroom, with direct access to a private courtyard of 16m².

An industrial style staircase reveals on the 1st floor a triple living room and a kitchen for a total of approximately 93m², a bathroom and a separate WC. A French window gives access to a raised garden of 80m² with a view of the old boilerworks.

A second staircase leads to a final bedroom of 22m² with a dressing room and a WC. Several glass roofs offer a view of the triple living room.

A pellet boiler provides ideal living comfort.

This triplex loft also offers two parking spaces.

The materials used, the outdoor spaces as well as the large volumes make this property unique in a peaceful town just 30 minutes from Paris.

Voluntary co-ownership.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
