Property Description

Located in the privileged setting of the Théry division in Vaucresson, this architect-designed house from the 80s offers a living area of ??180 m², nestled in the heart of a landscaped plot of 1,000 m². With its generous volumes, its unique architecture and a layout that erases the boundaries between interior and exterior, it offers a living space that is as functional as it is elegant, designed to fully embrace natural light and the view of the garden.

The ground floor is structured around a beautiful entrance with cupboards and guest toilet, which leads to a living room bathed in light thanks to large bay windows opening onto the terrace and the garden. The semi-open kitchen blends harmoniously into the living room, warmed by a central fireplace. An interior patio, a true oasis of tranquility, invites you to relax and can be converted into a reading room. The sleeping area offers a 25 m² master suite with dressing room and large bathroom (bath, shower, toilet), as well as a shower room and two other bedrooms extended by a pleasant veranda. Upstairs, an attic bedroom of 30 m² on the ground (with the possibility of adding a shower room), toilets and a mezzanine office complete this space.

Outside, the landscaped garden reveals a terrace wrapping around the house, creating an indoor-outdoor atmosphere ideal for moments of conviviality or calm. Varieties of trees, play of shadows and light, and careful exposure enhance this green setting, in perfect harmony with the neat architecture and quality materials of the house. Refreshment work will reveal the full potential of this unique residence.

A large garage of 30 m² as well as a cellar of 27 m² complete the services of this property, where each room dialogues with the garden. Combining generous volumes, quality materials and an architecture designed to open up to nature, this house embodies an art of living where interior and exterior merge, offering a peaceful and preserved living environment, close to amenities.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
