Property Description

Located 200m from Paris, in the Debain-Michelet district, this former shop of 125.34m<sup>2</sup> (120.12m<sup>2</sup> Carrez) on two levels, is located on the ground floor and benefits from a 23m<sup>2</sup> courtyard.

The entrance leads to a living room opening onto a kitchen benefiting from a nice height. In the extension, the night area accommodates a dressing room then a bedroom, decorated with a bathroom with shower cubicle and a water closet.

This first level of 56 sqm benefits from a large window on the front of the former shop and is articulated around a 23 sqm courtyard with a patio spirit, accessible from the different spaces.

A second water closet completes the plan.

The basement, accessible by a wooden staircase, consists of two adjoining rooms totaling 22m<sup>2</sup>, converted into a children's bedroom and play area.

The renovation highlighted by quality materials, such as wood and polished concrete, combined with the display window and a second-hand decoration highlights the history of this living space with a vintage spirit and suitable for entertaining.

Two cellars complete this property subject to the status of co-ownership.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
