Property Description

Espaces Atypiques Rive Gauche offers you a 55.08 m2 Carrez apartment in the heart of the famous Odéon district where boutiques mingle with the excitement of Parisian cafes and restaurants.

This cocoon on the first floor and by elevator asks to be reinvented and impresses with its half-moon or arched windows, a tribute to Gothic architecture.

An aesthetic asset: the rounded window brings a touch of authenticity, charm and character to the living room and redraws the straight lines.

The apartment is discovered by a corridor and develops into several well-defined spaces. A discreet kitchen also benefits from arched windows, a real common thread of the apartment which continues to the sleeping area.

A bedroom in the extension, with generous volumes, plays on two levels with its bathroom.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
