Property Description

Located near Place Albert Kahn, just a few steps from the shops of Jules Joffrin, in a beautiful condominium, in a building renovated in 2009 and completely renovated in 2022, this loft-style duplex of 106.53 m² (104.19 m² Carrez) now combines a relaxation and living space.

It is accessed by a small exterior staircase preceded by a south-facing balcony extending the living room of the apartment.

The entrance opens onto a large open space with an open kitchen under a glass roof totaling 73 m².

The four large south-facing windows provide it with pleasant light.

Its modularity potential easily allows the creation of a second bedroom.

A shower room with toilet completes this first level.

A staircase leads to the lower level of 31.5 m², configured as a large bedroom with a bathroom, a dressing room and a toilet.

The mixed status allows the property to be used for housing or offices.

A parking space in the courtyard of the building can be purchased in addition of the price.

Metro Simplon or Jules Joffrin (Lines 4 and 12)

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
