Property Description

Located between the Parc Montreau de Montreuil and the Rosny-Rail museum, this freehold house of 180 m² benefits from a garden and a terrace.

The entrance opens on the one hand to a 44 m² living room with access to the extended terrace of the garden and on the other hand to a dining kitchen. A separate toilet completes this level.

Upstairs are a master suite with dressing room, a bedroom, a bathroom with shower and a separate toilet.

In the attic, a bedroom with shower room is lit by skylights.

Accessible from the living room, in the semi-buried basement there is an office, a laundry room and a cellar. The generous volumes, the luminosity and the optimization of the spaces make this house an ideal family place.

RER: Rosny-sous-Bois at 500 meters.

ENERGY CLASS: E / CLIMATE CLASS: E. Estimated average amount of annual energy expenditure for standard use, based on energy prices for the year 2021: between euros2,340 and euros3,220.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
