Property Description

Located in the Jules Joffrin district, in the peace and quiet of a large, bright courtyard, this rare Anglo-Norman style house has a surface area of 124.98 m² (121.52 m² of living space).

It stands out in particular for its eclectic style, its glazed bricks, its large windows and its neo-Norman porch.

The 9 m² entrance leads to a 17 m² semi-professional dining kitchen on one side, and a 40 m² cathedral living room on the other.

The vast contemporary kitchen is decorated with numerous windows.

The living room includes a dining room that opens onto a lounge with a fireplace.

A row of large, high windows illuminate this elegant and warm living space whose double height reveals the magnificent roof frame.

Several storage spaces and toilets complete this first level.

From the living room, a beautiful staircase leads to the upper level.

This one consists first of all of a mezzanine of 17 m² followed by a first bedroom of 10 m².

A hallway distributes a second bedroom of 13 m², a pleasant bathroom with bathtub and shower, and toilets.

Rare and protected from the rhythm of the street, this unique house combines the privilege of benefiting from a property of character in the heart of the city with the benefits of a preserved setting.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
