Property Description

In the immediate vicinity of the banks of the Marne, this exceptional place with an Eiffel-style structure draws its history from the 1900 World's Fair.

This real loft is fully owned and has a total surface area of 407 sqm spread over two levels.

The ground floor consists of a hall giving access to a monumental 135 sqm living room, opening onto a bamboo grove.

Arranged as an open space, this room benefits from an audio installation with a DJ booth.

It distributes, on one side, a 35 sqm equipped kitchen opening onto a terrace and on the other a shower room with toilet and sauna.

The upper floor offers a vast open space, distributing a gym, an office, a shower room with toilet and laundry room, a dressing room as well as three large bedrooms, one of which is designed as a central island.

Glass roof and windows provide the entire volume with rare brightness throughout the year.

A garage and a parking space complete this property.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
