Property Description

Nestled in the heart of the Monesse-Croix Bosset district, one of the most popular in Sèvres, this beautiful house from 1927 covers 114 m2 of living space, supplemented by a garden level offering development possibilities. Built on a plot of 500 m2, this house with great potential will benefit from renovation work to give it back the charm it deserves.

The ground floor opens onto a large entrance serving on one side, an independent kitchen and on the other, a beautiful living room of 33 m² having retained all the charm of the old with its fireplace and its period parquet flooring. The latter gives access to a terrace overlooking the garden, and offering a breathtaking view of the surrounding area.

Upstairs, the sleeping area consists of two large bedrooms of 16 m², one with its own bathroom. A third bedroom of 9 m² and a bathroom complete this level.

The garden level, partially furnished, has a bedroom of 9 m², a wine cellar, a storage space, and a room of 20 m² to be exploited, thus offering expansion potential with direct access to the garden to create a harmonious connection between inside and outside.

A closed garage completes the services of this charming house, which only asks to find a second life in its green envelope...

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
