Property Description

This cozy loft-like apartment nestled under the roof, created by combining the service rooms, has been completely redesigned in a resolutely contemporary style and occupies the third floor.

Ideally located near all amenities, it covers a floor area of 115 m² (36 m² Carrez).

The entrance opens onto a space entirely dedicated to the living room, bathed in light thanks to its skylight and numerous skylights, where the living room, a modern and fitted kitchen, and an office area are harmoniously arranged.

The eaves have been perfectly optimized thanks to numerous storage spaces. Three attic bedrooms and a beautiful bathroom with a laundry area make up the sleeping area.

The location, the brightness, and the quality of the renovation make this cozy apartment a real favorite that will offer comfort and functionality to its future owners.

A cellar completes this property subject to the status of co-ownership.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
