Property Description

Set back on a private driveway in the Gabriel Péri district, a former printing house transformed into a 178 m² loft combines the charm of its half-timbered walls with generous volumes. A haven of peace, perfectly southwest-facing, opening onto a 108 m² garden, enhanced by a beautiful 11 m² terrace, offering a living environment of rare tranquility.

The 85 m² living room captivates with the brightness coming from multiple openings and its skylight, as well as its optimized layout. The living room overlooks the room and opens onto a terrace sheltered from view by a pergola. A large open-plan kitchen seamlessly connects with the reception area and opens onto a veranda that extends the view towards the garden. An underground cellar, ideal for wine storage, is accessible through a hatch in the floor located at the entrance. A discreetly fitted door in a low wall provides access to a large 20m² storage area beneath the living room. A guest toilet completes this level.

Access to the upper floor is via a central metal staircase leading to a large hallway with a glass floor beneath exposed beams. It leads to a 20m² master bedroom, and three other bedrooms of 12, 11, and 9m², one of which has a private balcony overlooking the garden. The modern and functional 13m² bathroom combines a bathtub, walk-in shower, and toilet. It can be divided into two separate areas with their own access points.

Adjacent to the house, a 15m² closed garage provides additional space for parking (car, motorcycle) or a workshop. A parking space in the private driveway, closed by an electric gate, completes this property, which is subject to co-ownership status.

The neighborhood offers all the necessary amenities: shops, schools, a middle school, and public transportation, with the Victor Basch tram line 2 just 600 meters away and La Garenne-Colombes train station 1,100 meters away.

Its large, well-insulated spaces (DPE C), its natural light, its lush greenery, and the surrounding tranquility make this a rare property, designed for those seeking space, character, originality, and modernity.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
