Property Description

Ideally located on a quiet street near the Lamarck-Caulaincourt metro station and the eponymous shopping streets, this 84,49 sqm (81.58 sqm Carrez) loft-style duplex apartment seduces with its brightness and very open spaces.

Past the building's lobby, the entrance opens directly onto a dining area, bathed in light thanks to a large, full-height and full-width south-facing bay window.

Opposite, the discreet and large kitchen area, designed as a low band for a room less marked by its function, composes with a lounge-relaxation area.

A comfortable staircase leads to the sleeping area, revealing a landing with storage, a 5 sqm shower room and a vast bedroom of over 25 sqm, with a wall entirely dedicated to the dressing room.

Natural light circulates generously thanks to the architectural opening of the staircase and the large bay window that extends the perspective.

This apartment elegantly combines raw materials and carefully chosen colors, cultivating a contemporary and welcoming atmosphere within a space designed for well-being and fluidity.

A cellar completes this property.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
