Property Description

Located in the heart of the block, in absolute calm, in the immediate vicinity of Serge Gainsbourg and all amenities, this house of 94.78 sqm on the ground (93.40 sqm Carrez) benefits from a patio as well as a garden of 170 sqm.

At the back of the condominium, a gate allows you to discover the Japanese-style garden of 170 sqm benefiting from a triple exposure (East-South-West).

The entrance reveals the living spaces totaling 38 sqm, adorned with terracotta tiles and decorated with a fireplace. On the one hand, there is a kitchen-diner with custom-made fittings. On the other hand, the living room deploys exposed beams under 4.60 meters of height. Accessible by a hatch, a real helical wine cellar has been custom-made. The numerous openings bathe the whole in light.

The outdoors invites you inside thanks to the large bay windows articulated around a 12 sqm patio accessible on one level from each room.

A bedroom, an office space, a bathroom and a separate toilet complete this level.

Upstairs there are two bedrooms of 11 sqm and 15 sqm respectively.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
