Property Description

Located between Paul Bert and the 4 paths, within a co-ownership resulting from the rehabilitation of an old crystal factory dating from the beginning of the 20th century, this house totals 235.52m2 on the ground (178.56 m2 Carrez) extended by a terrace tree-lined 53m2.

From a shared paved courtyard, hidden by a hedge, the tree-lined terrace leads to the main entrance. The hall leads to a living room decorated with an original marble fireplace and a bow window offering direct access to the outside. A kitchen and a toilet complete this floor.

The first floor accommodates 3 bedrooms, each with a bathroom.

On the second and last floor, a hallway with integrated storage leads to a suite with bathroom and dressing room then an attic living room under glass roofs with a full-height custom-made library. The workshop glass roof diffuses generous overhead light throughout the room, extended by a space with kitchen and an attic.

From the entrance, a basement serves two bedrooms and a bathroom, lit by two windows located at the base of the building. A cellar completes this level.

The numerous moldings, the original wooden staircase and the solid parquet floors give this unique family home an undeniable character.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
