Property Description

EXCLUSIVE - In Magagnosc, near Châteauneuf de Grasse, a superb "Belle Époque" villa built on a residential hillside with panoramic views extending to the sea.

The low-maintenance natural garden (with around 10 olive trees among others) spans 2870 m² and includes various levels, including a new pétanque court. The property also features a separate guest house with its own entrance and parking.

The main house comprises 7/8 rooms. On the ground floor/first floor, you have an entrance hall, a living room with a fireplace, a dining room, a fully equipped kitchen, two bedrooms with en-suite shower rooms or bathrooms, and an office. An outdoor dining area is directly accessible from the kitchen.

On the lower level, there are four bedrooms, two shower rooms, and a laundry room.

Outside, the pool and pool house are ideal for outdoor dining. There is also parking for several cars and a closed garage.

There is a good walking path to the square of Châteauneuf (with restaurants, shops and bakery). Up on the mountain above the house there are nice walkways, more challenging terrain and exciting nature and of course a wonderful view. Very nice area for walking, hiking, cycling etc.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
