Property Description

This modern villa in Antibes offers exceptional panoramic sea views and is located in a quiet residential area. With a living space of 512 m², it features eight bedrooms spread across three levels. The ground floor includes a bright living room with sea-facing windows, a separate kitchen with access to a fully equipped terrace, and a home cinema room. The main floor houses the master bedroom with a balcony and two other bedrooms, all with sea views. The garden level is equipped with a sauna, a kitchen-living room, and several storage spaces.

The vast Mediterranean garden spans 4,369 m², adorned with cypress, olive, and palm trees, ensuring total privacy. The heated and secured pool, usable year-round, is surrounded by relaxation areas and comfortable terraces. A 55 m² guest house with two independent studios is also part of this property.

Close to the beaches and the highway, this villa combines luxury and convenience with modern features like air conditioning and a security system. Additionally, it includes a pétanque court, a barbecue area, and a pond with a waterfall.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
