Property Description

Located near the village center, this recently renovated house (2021) with a living area of 134 m² offers a peaceful and pleasant living environment thanks to its prime location and its cozy, bright layout.

The ground floor features beautiful living spaces, including an open kitchen connected to the dining room and a spacious double living room of 55 m² with a fireplace. These living areas open directly onto a welcoming patio. Upstairs, the sleeping area includes a master suite with a lovely view of the Alpilles, two additional bedrooms, and a shower room. You will also enjoy a terrace of over 30 m² overlooking the patio, perfect for relaxation.

This house has been tastefully renovated using quality materials. A pool of approximately 2x4m in the patio and a private parking space in front of the house complete this rare property, located in a charming hamlet.

Don't miss this unique opportunity to live in a village house combining comfort, charm, and tranquility!

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
