Property Description

This superb villa, located in the sought-after Saint-Jacques neighborhood in Grasse, is set within a secure and highly desirable domain, inhabited year-round. It offers complete tranquility and uninterrupted views of the garden and surrounding mountains.

The ground floor features a spacious living room with a fireplace, a bright dining area that opens onto the garden, a modern kitchen with underfloor heating, and two en-suite bedrooms with private bathrooms and toilets. Additionally, the villa has a guest restroom.

Upstairs, the master suite includes a private bathroom, toilets, and two Tropezienne terraces. All rooms in the villa are air-conditioned.

The villa embodies Provençal charm with noble materials, such as stone floors from an 18th-century Italian castle, a stone façade, and wooden details.

The large, flat garden is beautifully landscaped with citrus trees, 12 palm trees, 13 century-old olive trees, and features a scheduled sprinkler system.

The outdoor area boasts a swimming pool equipped with a new filtration system featuring a jetstream and an automatic poolguard safety system.

An additional outdoor fireplace and a cozy relaxation area enhance this outdoor space. The property also includes a garage and storage area, in addition to the carport.

The villa is complemented by a guest house with an en-suite bedroom, shower, toilet, underfloor heating, and air conditioning.

Finally, the property has installed internet access and includes a share in an olive grove, jointly owned with the domain.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
