Property Description

Magnificent villa fully renovated with elegance, located in the prestigious Mont Boron district.

It opens onto a spacious entrance and a large living room with expansive windows, offering breathtaking views of Nice and the sea. Ideally positioned facing the Colline du Château, the kitchen, living room, dining room, and two of the four bedrooms enjoy spectacular views.

On the ground floor, there is a bedroom with an en-suite shower room, while three additional bedrooms, each with their own en-suite shower room, are located on the upper floor. Two of these sea-facing bedrooms have private terraces.

In the basement, a true wine cellar and a versatile room that can be used as an office or gym complete the space.

The landscaped 600 m² plot invites you to enjoy a lovely swimming pool and relax under a beautiful olive tree.

A large garage perfectly complements this exceptional property. A visit is not to be missed!

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
