Property Description

Just a 5-minute drive from the village of Eygalières, this Provencal-style house with 207 m² of living space is nestled in the heart of the countryside, offering both tranquility and proximity to the village. With 63 m² of outbuildings, including a workshop and a double garage, as well as a 20 m² pool house, this stone house combines comfort, authenticity, and functionality.

Ground floor: The house opens onto a fully equipped open-plan kitchen, leading to a spacious, bright, and welcoming living and dining area. A practical pantry, guest toilet, and two ground-floor bedrooms share a bathroom and separate toilets.

Upstairs: A third bedroom with its own private bathroom, along with a large office that can easily be converted into a fourth bedroom depending on your needs.

Exterior: The enclosed garden, with its south-facing lawn, features a large traditional swimming pool and a pool house. All this in a peaceful setting that offers total privacy, while still being close to the village amenities.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
